

Study trip "Education for sustainable development in protected areas"

Harz National Park and Schorfheide-Chorin Biosphere Reserve, Germany 19 - 23 July 2017

Preliminary programme

Day 1	until 2 nm	Arrival at Parlin, Hannovar or Lainzia Main Ctation or Airport
Day 1	until 2 pm	Arrival at Berlin, Hannover or Leipzig Main Station or Airport
19 July		Transfer to Harz National Park , Braunlage, approx. 2-3 hours
Wednesday		Check-in Hotel Achtermannstor, Braunlage
Wednesday	Evening	Dinner
		Welcome, introduction and short presentations of participants : Experiences in the field of education for sustainable development, work with volunteers
		Presentation of the Harz National Park and the department "Information and Education" by Meike Hullen, Head of the department
Day 2	Morning	Breakfast
20 July		Transfer to Torfhaus
-		Guided tour through the TorfHaus National Park Visitor Centre: Moors in the
Thursday		Harz mountains – an example of an ecosystem's sustainable development and accompanying didactic measures of a visitor centre; led by the visitor centre's team
	Midday	Transfer to Braunlage and lunch at Hotel Achtermannstor
	Afternoon	Transfer to the forest youth hostel Brunnenbachsmühle
		Insights into the work of the national park's forest youth hostel Brunnen-bachsmühle and the Regional Environmental Education Centre": Concepts and practical experience with education for sustainable development addressing kids and youngsters — 1) forestry fieldwork of school classes, 2) Education for sustainable development in cooperation with regional school classes; presentation and discussion with Thomas Schwerdt, Manager of the forest youth hostel
		Transfer to HohneHof
		Visit of HohneHof Nature Discovery Centre and Dandelion Discovery Trail: Concepts and practical experience with education-focussed offers for families — 1) researcher corner, 2) Dandelion Discovery Trail, 3) fairytale guided walks; presentation and discussion with Irmtraud Theel, Manager of die HohneHof Nature Discovery Centre
	Evening	Transfer to Braunlage and dinner at Hotel Achtermannstor
		Review of the day: Sharing impressions, lessons learned

Day 3	Morning	Breakfast
21 July		Transfer to Schorfheide-Chorin Biosphere Reserve (approx. 5.5 hours) inkl. lunch
Friday	Afternoon	Arrival in Angermünde
		Check-in Hotel am Seetor
		Transfer to the Blumberger Mühle
		Guided tour through the Information Centre Blumberger Mühle and its nature experience site; led by the information centre's team
		The Junior Ranger Programme in Brandenburg's National Natural Landscapes: concept and progress of the programme, implementation of education for sustainable development; presentation and discussion with Betina Post, Head of Education at Naturwacht Brandenburg (ranger organisation)
		Joining the opening of the Junior Ranger Camp at the Blumberger Mühle
	Evening	Dinner
		Evening programme with the Junior Rangers : 1) bat hike, 2) fairytale hike, 3) kid's beaver safary
Day 4	Morning	Breakfast
22 July		Joining the Junior Rangers and Junior Ranger supervisors at the treasures hunt with various outdoor stations
Saturday	Midday	Lunch
	Afternoon	Joining the Junior Ranger treasures hunt's finale
		All day: Junior Ranger swap market for clothes, games and books
		Summary of the study trip: sharing impressions, lessons learned, outlook
	Evening	Dinner at the Junior Ranger Camp
		Joining the Junior Ranger evening programme with bicycle cinema, sports and games
Day 5	Morning	Breakfast
23 July		Departure to Berlin, approx. 1.5 hours
Sunday

