

Study trip

“Regional development and tourism in protected areas”

Wadden Sea National Park and Müritz National Park, Germany
14 – 18 May 2017

Preliminary programme

K. Sabry

Day 1 14 May Sunday	until 2 pm  Evening	Arrival at Hamburg Main Station Transfer to Mueritz National Park, approx. 3 hours Check-in Pension Fledermaus in Waren Dinner at the „Alte Kachelofenfabrik“, old industrial monument and certified eco hotel Welcome, introduction and short presentations of participants: Experiences, projects in the field of regional development and tourism, work with volunteers
Day 2 15 May Monday	Morning  Midday  Afternoon  Evening	Breakfast Discussion at the National Park Headquarters in Hohenzieritz: Introduction to the national park, nature related tourism and the national park’s partner initiative Lunch at Havelkrug, Granzin Canoe tour with Canoe Station Hecht, a national park’s partner business: The national park from the point of view of a national park related local business Guided Walk through the national park village Kratzeburg: Infrastructure for information, awareness raising and recreation Visit of local businesses: Fisherman and farm shop Dinner Review of the day: Sharing impressions, lessons learned

Day 3 16 May Tuesday	Morning	Breakfast  Transfer to Serrahn: Guided hike through the World Heritage Site Beech Woods in Serrahn: How does the declaration as a World Heritage Site influences the tourism development?
	Midday	Lunch in Carpin „Landgasthof Am Schlesersee“, a typical rustic tavern with regional meals
	Afternoon	Transfer to the World Heritage Site Wadden Sea National Park (Schleswig-Holstein), approx. 3,5 hours  Visit of the National Park Visitor Centre in St. Peter-Ording , a popular seaside spa, guided walk to the beach : introduction to the national park, sustainable and harmonious interplay of nature conservation and tourism at the tourist hot spot
	Evening	Check-in Strandhotel Fernsicht, Tönning  Dinner  Review of the day : Sharing impressions, lessons learned
Day 4 17 May Wednesday	Morning	Breakfast  Visit to the National Park Information Centre “Multimar Wattforum” in Tönning: presentation of nature related tourism and the national park’s partner initiative, visit of the interactive exhibition
	Midday	Lunch and transfer to Schlüttsiel
	Afternoon	Ranger-guided boat tour around the “Halligen” , small islands without protective dikes special to the area, incl. fishing and identification of marine animals, observation of wild seals  Discussion with national park partners on the island Hallig Hooge : Contribution to the national park’s goals by the community, a nature conservation association and a guesthouse
	Evening	Dinner  Summary of the study trip : sharing impressions, lessons learned, outlook
Day 5 18 May Thursday	Morning	Breakfast  Departure to Hamburg, approx. 2 hours

