- To build a common platform for cooperation, share environmental info and experience, encourage active youth with incentives;
- To promote and scale up effective methods of environmental education, including new interactive technologies, to encourage children's and youth teams acting in conservation for Russian PAs;
- To support and enhance cooperation between PAs and businesses in the field of sustainable tourism

ABOUT FRIENDS OF PROTECTED AREAS MOVEMENT (FPA)

Friends of Protected Areas

It has been developing the National FPA movement program since 2001.

The program base on methodology, projects and communication modules, it unite over 600,000 young participants all over Russia.

Since 2001, the team has held 6 FPA forums in Moscow, Kazan, Voronezh, and Abakan.

The FPA movement is pursuing a very clear and important goal today - educating young and adult people through their involvement in the nature conservation and awareness on PA. We constantly use new formats, engage new experts, celebrities who share the values of the project and who are ready to change the situation for the better.

Every year the movement grows in number and quality.

It is featured by representatives of: Protected areas, NGO, the federal and regional authorities, socially responsible business, education leaders, and federal media.
